Filed Date and Time: November 21, 2017 01:38 PM Pacific Time

The name of the Society is INSPIREHEALTH SOCIETY

The purposes of the Society are:

- (a) To provide an integrated complementary approach to health and healing which promotes personal autonomy, choice and the many ways in which the mind, body and soul can contribute to healing and well-being.
- (b) To empower people to participate in their own health, healing and recovery, and to encourage life-long pursuit of overall well-being.
- (c) To provide a safe, caring, and nurturing environment which honors the unique qualities and needs of each individual.
- (d) To provide information about and access to a wide variety of healing modalities and reputable qualified practitioners who honor and support the principles of healing.
- (e) To provide the opportunity to develop healing skills through an experiential approach.
- (f) To educate the public and conventional health care providers about the importance of complementary modalities and healing and thus, help to bridge the gap between conventional and complementary health care.
- (g) To provide a learning environment in which health care students and providers can be introduced to the principles of healing, complementary modalities and a holistic integrated approach to health care.
- (h) To help people interpret and understand complex medical information so that they can make informed choices that are right for them.
- (i) To investigate and research the effectiveness of complementary modalities.
- (j) To support the exploration of safe and potentially effective new therapies for life-threatening illness.
- (k) To educate the public about the important role that prevention can play in the maintenance of good health and well-being.
